6. RECRUITING:

Please describe your recruiting programs:

- 1. Law Clerks: recruitment from three local law schools via clinical education programs, pro bono honors programs and career services
- 2. Social Work Interns: recruitment of students for SDSU of School of Health and Human Services
- 3. Investigative Interns: recruitment of students form SDSU criminal Justice Administration and SDUS and UCSD Political Science Internship programs.
- 4. Paralegals Interns: Recruitment for students from San Diego Community colleges
- 5. Volunteer Lawyers, Family Advocates and Office Volunteers: Recruitment of volunteers county-wide for churches, social groups and other community organizations

7. SPECIAL VOLUNTEER PROGRAM ACTIVITIES/ACHIEVEMENTS:

Please describe any special activities and/or achievements your program was involved in during the period of this report:

9 Alternate Public Defender Volunteers for the Juvenile Dependency Division (Primary Parent Office) received the Department Volunteers of the Year Award from the Board of Supervisors in April of 2000. The following Volunteers received the award from APD Primary Parent Group are: James Foltmer, Sylvia Keating, Socorro Gonzalez-Heather, Shauna Martin, Leonard Montillano Jr., Maria O'Conley, Tami Okuna, and Noelle Ramsey-Chancy.

The volunteers' collective responsibilities include making first contact with APD parent clients at court. Volunteers calm the client, direct the client questions and focus the clients on their problems, so that when they meet their attorneys the client can clearly state their problems to the attorney. The attorney can then better present their clients' case in court. Our volunteers also assess the social issues. They help devise a plan of action to reunify the family. By assessing the social issues and determining clients' individual strengths and weaknesses, our volunteers help the attorney develop and interpret their dependency cases.

- 8. VOLUNTEER PROGRAM GOALS FOR FISCAL YEAR 2000-01: Please describe your program goals. Include activities, number of volunteers, recruitment, training, recognition and other goals:
 - Continue to arrange speaking engagements with community organizations and agencies to seek volunteers.
 - Continue to honor and recognize APD volunteers annually and to participate in the Board of Supervisors' annual Volunteers Recognition Month
 - Participate in community career/job fairs to recruit volunteers
 - Meet quarterly with co-workers who supervise volunteers and develop action plans
 - Continue to monitor the volunteers' exit surveys for program evaluation
 - Increase volunteer hours and the quality of the program
